Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gottlieb J. Gienger and Rose Hoffman exchanged their wedding vows on November 7, 1937, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 75 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Gottlieb and Rose made their home on a farm northeast of Leola, South Dakota. After retiring, they moved to Aberdeen, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Gottlieb and Rose have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Gottlieb and Rose will celebrate their 75th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 7, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
